"THE RAJA PROJECT"
NEWSLETTER N.12

This little goalkeeper wearing the t-shirt of the Italian football team Inter, is playing football in the small field in Cochabamba, Bolivia.

He could be one of the 300 children attending Massimo Casari's after-school activities (www.comitatocasari.org), or one of the prisoners' sons who live with their fathers in prison and who are invited to play in Casari's Centre once a week. For two hours they can forget the atrocities of their life which, without any fault, they are forced to spend in jail, living in "inhuman" conditions, Massimo said.

What effect does this picture have on you? As for us, it has remained in our hearts.

Raja, in collaboration with CRUPE, (www.crupefoundation.org) has decided to really and truly try to build a proper small football field in Cochabamba. Within a year.

If you want to take part in this miracle... you know how to do it: www.therajaproject.com

Those of you who will make a donation to Raja from 50 euros upwards, will be given a wonderful gift: The Raja - Charm which can be hung on your bag or used as key ring.
